Congressman's Turner's Majority Greatly Reduced.

Harrisonburg: Fifteen out of twentyive precincts reported in Rockingham show a net Democratic loss of more than 400 as compared with the vote of 1892 and 400 as compared with the vote of 1892 and indicate a plurality of 400 in the county for Waiker (Republican). The effect of the Waiton election-law was the same as in the corporation election here in July. It massed the lilliterate vote almost solidly against the Democrats, whereas heretofore it had been somewhat evenly divided between the two parties. Prejudice against the law likewise kept many Democrats away from the polls. Democrats away from the polls. ALBEMARLE.

NEW YORK, November 6.—Ex-Mayor Grant concedes his defeat by 20,000, and he says that the State and city are lost to the Democracy. TAMMANY'S STRONG FIGURES.

The Sun says: "Tammany Hall says Strong's plurality will reach 75,000." BROOKLYN AGAIN REPUBLICAN. BROOKLYN AGAIN REPUBLICAN.
BROOKLYN, November 6.—The Citizen, recognized as the regular Democratic representative in Brooklyn, has an extra,
with this double-leaded matter:
"The city of Brooklyn and county of Kings are again in the Republican list.
Morton's plurality here, if the figures
thus far are to be looked upon as indicating the ratio, will not fall below 19.600. This, of course, means, we assume, defeat for the Democratic city and county tickets, and, in all probability, involves the loss of the five congressional A HANDSOME COLLATION.

SCARCELY A HOPE FOR WILSON.

GRAFTON, W. VA., November 6.—A6
10:20 there is scarcely a ray of hope for the escape of William L. Wilson from decat. Dayton has made gains everywhere. This county gives him 69, a gain of 100; Preston, 1,200, a gain of 75; Berkeley, 256, a gain of 75; Marion is in doubt. Wilson carried the county by 90 two years ago. The agricultural counties in the interior may change the aspect, but it is not probable. Lafollette, the Republican chairman, claims Dayton's election by 1,000.

WILSON IS DEFEATED.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., November 6.—
Dayton (Republican) has been elected to Congress from this district, defeating W.
L. Wilson, Miller has also defeated Hervey in the Fourth District, and the Republican Committee claims all four congressmen. The indications are that a Republican Legislature has been elected.
This will give the Republicans a United States Senator in place of Camben (Democrat).
